Britannia Moving To/From Ireland

Ireland has always been a popular European destination for people looking to move overseas. Consequently Britannia has been providing an excellent shipping and removal service to Ireland for many years. Household and personal effects can be transported to Ireland in various ways; by shared load (groupage) or by sole use container load.

Customs Clearance/Documentation

Ireland is a full member of the EU, documentation required should be merely a copy of your passport, however if you are coming from outside the EU they may ask for a copy of your rental agreement/house purchase document. You will also need to complete the Irish customs form 1076, and must have owned your effects for more than 6 months before importing them. Your local Britannia Member will provide you with detailed customs regulations depending on your personal requirements.

Transit Times

Groupage or shared load consignments usually take 10-14 days door to door. This can vary depending on time of year and the size of the consignment.

Full vehicle loads can normally be delivered within 48hrs.

Prohibitions and Restrictions

In general it is in your interest not to import the following items:

- Firearms & ammunition
- Inflammable goods & substances
- Plants & plant material
- Foodstuffs, perishables or otherwise
- Alcohol, narcotics and dangerous goods
- Objectionable and indecent material

Tracking Consignment

All groupage consignments will be bar coded before they are loaded into the shipping container. This will ensure that no items are left at origin and allow Britannia to check the status of your goods in transit.

Destination Services

If you have selected a full door to door service Britannia will deliver the goods to your new home. Goods will be placed in the relevant rooms, as directed by you. All furniture will be unwrapped and cartons packed by Britannia will be unpacked on to a flat surface and all used packing materials will be removed from site on the delivery day. Although there will be insurance implications you retain the right not to have some or all items unpacked should you choose.
